

Oryzon to join the IBEX Small Cap Index

❖ The inclusion will become effective on December 24th

MADRID, SPAIN and CAMBRIDGE, MA, UNITED STATES, December 17, 2018 – Oryzon Genomics (ISIN Code: ES0167733015, ORY), a public clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company leveraging epigenetics to develop therapies in diseases with strong unmet medical need, has announced today that the Technical Advisory Committee of the IBEX INDICES has decided to incorporate Oryzon to the Ibx Small Cap Index together with other five small-cap companies. This change will take effect as of December 24. The index adjustment will be made at the closing of the session on Friday 21.

The IBEX SMALL CAP index is composed of 30 stocks of the Spanish Stock Exchange that follow certain requirements in terms of stock market capitalization, free floating capital and annual rotation of the value. The IBEX SMALL CAP is a national and international benchmark for the stock market evolution of Spanish medium and small capitalization companies.

Carlos Buesa, CEO of Oryzon, commented that "being part of this index is indeed very positive news for a company like Oryzon, as it will allow us to continue improving the visibility in front of a wider range of investors. Likewise, it will allow us to be considered for certain investment instruments like index funds and others, and it also highlights the high degree of liquidity of our stock in the Spanish market".
