RULES COMMON TO THE EXERCISE OF PROXY AND VOTING RIGHTS BY REMOTE MEANS OF COMMUNICATION.
VOTING BY MEANS OF REMOTE COMMUNICATION

Deadline for receipt by the Company and registration of shareholders / Shareholder Status:

In order to be valid, both the proxies granted and the votes cast prior to the General Meeting by remote means of communication must be received by the Company at the registered office or through its website before 11:59 p.m. on the business day immediately prior to the day scheduled for the General Meeting to be held on first call.

The proxy, vote or attendance shall only be considered valid if the shareholder status is confirmed, verifying that the ownership and number of shares provided by each of the persons attending, issuing their proxy or voting by remote means of communication coincide with the data provided by Iberclear.

Rules of priority between proxy and voting by remote means of communication and attendance in person at the General Shareholders' Meeting:

The electronic attendance at the General Meeting of shareholders who have previously delegated their proxy or voted by remote means of communication, regardless of the means used, shall render the proxy or vote null and void.

In the event that a shareholder makes several proxies or votes, the action (proxy or vote) that was taken last shall prevail, although the proxy or vote validly cast by means of a handwritten signature on the printed paper card shall render ineffective the one cast by electronic means, whether cast earlier or later. If there is no certainty as to the time at which the shareholder made any of the proxies or votes, the vote, regardless of the means used to cast it, shall prevail over the proxy. If the shareholder has cast various votes, the vote cast last shall prevail.

Other provisions:

The disposal of the shares whose ownership confers the right to vote, provided that it is known to the Company at least five days prior to the date of the General Meeting, shall render the vote and proxy conferred null and void.

It is the sole responsibility of the shareholder to keep the electronic signature for the use of the electronic proxy and voting service.

Shareholders entitled to attend who cast their vote remotely in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of the constitution of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

For the purposes of Article 126 of the Capital Companies Law, it is presumed that the co-owner who at any time performs an action (delegation, vote or physical attendance) is designated by the rest of the co-owners to exercise the shareholder's rights.

In the event that the shareholder is a legal entity, it must provide a copy of the power of attorney of the signatory of the attendance, proxy and remote voting card and communicate any modification or revocation of the powers held by its representative and, therefore, the Company declines any liability until such notification is made, provided that it is made before the beginning of the General Meeting.

The Company reserves the right to request any additional information it may deem appropriate or necessary, as well as to accept the validity of any documents for the purpose of accrediting the proxy and the remote votes cast.

Technical issues:

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the electronic voting and proxy mechanisms when technical or security reasons so require.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused to the shareholder as a result of breakdowns, overloads, line failures, connection failures, malfunctioning of the mail service or any other eventuality of the same or a similar nature, beyond the Company's control, which prevent the use of the remote voting and proxy mechanisms. For further information on proxy and remote voting, shareholders may contact the Company's website (<http://www.oryzon.com>), the e-mail address accionistas@oryzon.com and the Shareholder Service telephone number (+34) 93 70 74 100.
